(1). Prize £500. Digital innovation on the theme of 'Technical religion'.

For example technology supports or substitutes in religious practice, from the rosary bead to the hymn words projected on screens to Zoom and Youtube worship.

This prize is offered to an individual or group who can best show how Unitarians can enjoy worship and information whether as individuals in the home or as a community through technology.

(2) Prize £250

A poem, prayer or hymn which best demonstrates Unitarian values in worship

Entry is free. Entries should be accompanied by this application form which can be downloaded from the website <nufonline.org.uk/DorothyArcher>

Closing date for entries. 30 November 2023.

Winners will be informed.

Note The National Unitarian Fellowship may use the entries in its publication News&Views and on the NUF website.
